

TREATY OF WORCESTER 1218 IN 2024

MONDAY 11 MARCH 2024 2PM TO 6PM

*Worcester Warriors Foundation Cecil Duckworth House
Royal Porcelain Works Severn Street Worcester WR1 2NE*

MEDIEVAL HISTORY, MODERN LAW AND WAR CONFERENCE

The Treaty of Worcester 1218 settled border boundary between England & Wales.

Can that settlement of borders between Two States apply today?

What lessons from Medieval England adhere to modern times?

SPEAKERS INTRODUCTION BY:

ROBIN WHITTAKER

Retired County Archivist, Keble College, Oxford

PROFESSOR DANIEL POWER,

Swansea University on Medieval History

JOHN INGE, BISHOP OF

WORCESTER,

Moral imperative for Two State Solution

DR DAVID STEPHENSON,

Bangor University on Medieval History

BRIAN JOHNSON THOMAS,

retired UN Security Council Consultant Expert

on Arms in Wars in Africa

PROFESSOR JAMES MCDOUGALL,

Trinity College Oxford on Modern History

COLONEL MARK JACKSON,

Retired Worcestershire Regiment on

UN Peacekeeping

JAMES SCHOFIELD,

Lawyer and journalist in the Middle East

1991 - 2000 on the International Court of Justice

DAVID HALLMARK,

Retired Lawyer past Visiting Fellow

Trinity College Oxford on Worcester local history war and law

INVITATION through local history and community societies; Worcestershire Historical Society, Worcester Civic Society, Battle of Worcester Society, Worcestershire Local History Forum, Worcester Rowing Club, Worcestershire Law Society, University of Worcester, Worcestershire Regiment Museum, Worcester Archaeological Society, Worcester Archives and Archaeology Service, Worcester Arts Society, Friends of EP Thompson, Friends of Swan Theatre, Worcestershire Medico-Legal Society, Simon De Montfort Society, Worcester Rugby Football Club, 280 Lodge, Friends of Worcester Cathedral, Worcester Golf and Country Club, Friends of Museum of Royal Worcester, Worcester Rotary.

APPLICATION to special email treatyofworcester1218@gmail.com

FREE

ENTRY REQUIRES PRIOR REGISTRATION THROUGH SOCIETIES OR EMAIL ABOVE

FREE

An event in respectful memory of Worcester historians Edward P Thompson and Dorothy G Thompson